

Title : All Of A Sudden

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

Baby - shed a little light
On all the things you said tonight
My mind's still reeling from your feelings now
Well, if you're really right
You win, I won't put up with a fight
So clarify with what, when, why and how
If your good sense allows

Make me understand,
How a lover can turn round and say it has to end
All of a sudden baby
What's your point of view
And what am I to do with all those dreams I've saved for two?
Why have you changed All of a sudden?

So you say, there's nobody else
But with you you know it's hard to tell
I've trusted you that's all there's to it, then
Seems like I know you very well
We've been to heaven and through hell
So tell me why the big surprising end?
I thought that we were friends
Baby please, reconsider me
Live by the laws of give and take
Why must we set each other free?
So stay with me for love and old time's sake
