

Title : Echoes

Composer : Shiaw, Casewoo

Lyricist : Kit Chan

I know you heard me call
But you turned and walked away
The sun, it hits so hard
But not so hard as my voice
My voice against the wall

* Echoes

Echoes

Echoes

All I hear are echoes

Shadows

Shadows

All I see are shadows.

You know you make me so mad
'Cos I hate being the fool
I keep falling, falling
Eating the dust you left behind

I've finally reached the shore
The waves wash over me
Cleaning the wounds
And cleaning you too
Your concrete heart is cured
By the art of breathing water
