

Title : Always A Mayflowerian

Composer : Mr Ng Kok Wing

Lyricist : Mr Ng Kok Wing

This world I live in, was so confused
Good things around me, were just so few
Without a vision, without a view
Amidst the stormy skies, there I found you!

It's you who gave me a dream so far and wide
A dream full of victories on my side
Now I'm ready to face tomorrow
Always a Mayflowerian inside!

Learning to understand, I made new friends
Be always there for them, lift out my helping hand
You taught me how to be, mighty in thought and deed
I'll make you proud of me, always faithful I will be

It's you who gave me a dream so far and wide
A dream full of victories on my side
Now I'm ready to face tomorrow
Always a Mayflowerian inside!

I was made a leader, to lead and serve
Learnt to be humble, be a good example
Caring for others, living with purpose
You taught me right from wrong, now I sing my song

It's you who gave me a dream so far and wide
A dream full of victories on my side
Now I'm ready to face tomorrow
Always a Mayflowerian inside!

Today is the day I will conquer I will strive
You have made a difference in my life!

This world I live in, no longer confused
Good things around me, never so few
I've found my vision, my dream and my passion
Facing tomorrow.....
