

Title : You Left Me For Another

Composer : L.R. Ferdinands

Lyricist : L.R. Ferdinands

So many times I walked away,
But you keep coming back to me,
Please go away,
I know that I've been patient with you
Telling me your lies,
But you never seem to change,
What can I do

If you left me for another love,
Stay away and let me be,
I can't share my love with any other,
How could you hurt me so,
I don't know what to do,
It'll be a long time till I love another

How long must we go on this way,
Why must I keep on loving you,
Please go away,
Why does it have to be me
loving someone else's love,
But I have myself to blame,
For loving you

If you left me for another love,
Stay away and let me be,
I won't share my love with any other,
Why did you hurt me so,
I don't know what to do,
It'll be a long time till I love another

If you left me for another love,
Stay away and let me be,
I won't share my love with any other,
Why did you hurt me so,
I don't know what to do,
It'll be a long time till I love another
