Maybe it's time I admitted
The fact I shunned so badly
Because it's been a while
Yet my heart breaks a little

I've told myself to stop all
Self-loathing and contempt
The pessimist inside of me
Like Katrina and Irene

C

Don't forget me now
Don't forget what we really had
Don't forget the spark in our chests
'Cos I won't, ever
And I won't ever

Please look at me one more time
You're still in my dreams
This image is not real
But the feeling soothes me so

B

I know it's over
100 times I've told myself
I just hope it doesn't stop you
Like it has for me
X3

Don't forget me now
Don't forget me now
Don't forget me now
Don't forget me now
