

Title : Once And For All

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

If you don't mind
I'd like to take you in my arms and say
I'll be right here, here's where I'll stay
Just for tonight
Then in the morning I must go away
But I'll come home soon if I may Someday

* So for now I'll whisper low
Once more before I go
Baby, I just want you to know

 Now and forever
I'll be the one who'll love you
Forever and ever
Once and for all
Now and forever
All I will do is love you
Forever and ever
Once and for all

Why must it be
That everything comes to an end
Let's keep on loving if we can
I want to lie
Holding you tight until the break of day
Dreaming your dreams until they fade away

Repeat *

Repeat **
