Treasured Gift

(送花)

Although it's only an orchid
It exudes such charm all over
Let it be a gift to you
And hope that you'll cherish it

Let time fly, through decades and centuries
May you preserve this flower
Let time fly through decades and centuries
May you preserve this flower forever!

Although it's just a little orchid
Its simplicity and beauty
Fills my heart with
Longing for home's sweet melody

Although it's only an orchid
It exudes charm all over
May our homeland, like this orchid
Radiate with brilliance and splendour!
