

Title : Down (The Spare Me Trance Mix)

Composer : X' Ho

Lyricist : X' Ho

(Chorus):

Down with romantic
Down with the wanting
Down with the yearning
Down

Tell yourself, you've had enough of this pretty tender trust
Never once, okay maybe twice,
It has happened, but now what of ?
It's been taught to you as an idle dream, make believe
And it will come
You've waited long enough to know that all the parts
Just don't add up
To that dreamed sum, so...

(Chorus)

Clear away the notion that you are deadlocked
In scumbag taste
Your subscription to that dream-lover state has been Revoked and been replaced
And don't be fooled into believin' cute sweet faces tied
With bows and ribbons and lace
Check your personal chart, examine your heart,
Hold up to life with no disgrace

(Chorus)

Goodbye fairytale goodbye
Cut the ties
The lie of lies that love survives mankind
Is all a crock of y'know

Your individual love only survives when unity gives birth
To life for the love to survive
Otherwise, where does the love go?
Let me tell you, straight into ashes and dust
There!

(Chorus)
