Fly Away

Music and lyrics by Corrinne May Ying Foo
Copyright © 2000 Corrmay Gourmet Music (ASCAP)

"When will you be home?" she asks as we watch the planes take off
We both know we have no clear answer to where my dreams may lead
She's watched me as I crawled and stumbled
As a child, she was my world
And now to let me go, I know she bleeds and yet she says to me

You can fly so high
Keep your gaze upon the sky
I'll be praying every step along the way
Even though it breaks my heart to know we'll be so far apart
I love you too much to make you stay
Baby fly away

Autumn leaves fell into spring time and Silver-painted hair
Daddy called one evening saying
"We need you. Please come back"
When I saw her laying in her bed
Fragile as a child
Pale just like an angel taking flight
I held her as I cried

You can fly so high
Keep your gaze upon the sky
I'll be praying every step along the way
Even though it breaks my heart to know we'll be so far apart
I love you too much to make you stay
Baby fly away

Same Side of the Moon

Lyrics and music by Corrinne May Ying Foo

I'm looking out the window
Where we sat to watch the stars
There's a chill within the air
It makes my heart long for your touch
You may be miles away
But as I kneel to pray

I see the same side of the moon
That we'll be looking on when the world turns blue
And know that time and space can't come between
me and you

We share the same side of the moon
And though you'll never see all my tears shine
through
I know I can't be that far from you
If we're both looking on the same side of the moon.

I picture you across the oceans
In your corner of the world
I pray the wind will blow my voice
And gently whisper in your ear
Your night may be my day
And though the seasons change

It's still the same side of the moon
That we'll be looking on when the world turns blue
And know that time and space can't come between
me and you

We share the same side of the moon
And though you'll never see all my tears shine
through
I know I can't be that far from you
If we're both looking on the same side of the moon
I know I can't be that far from you
If we're both looking on the same side of the moon

Something About You

Lyrics and Music by Corrinne May Ying Foo

Corrmay Gourmet Music (ASCAP)

Don't know what you do to me but Everytime I'm with you it's a natural high It's like re-discovering Eden with chocolate -coated rainbows and cotton candy skies
And everytime you look my way
I wish I had the guts to say

There's something in your eyes
Something in your smile
Something in the way you move me
You make me want to sing
Make me want to dance
Make me want to cry
I'm falling in love with you.

I think I'll hire Cupid
He'll make you see I'm more than your friend
You'll be tossing and turning
Counting the hours till you see me again
And when we meet you'll Kiss my hand and say the words I've longed to hear

There's something in your eyes
Something in your smile
Something in the way you move me
You make me want to sing
Make me want to dance
Make me want to cry
I'm falling in love with you
You make me want to sing,
make me want to dance,
make me want to cry
I'm falling in love with you.

Fall to Fly

Music by Corrinne May Ying Foo, Lyrics by Susan Cattaneo
(Corrmay Gourmet Music / Susan Kean Cattaneo)(ASCAP)
Copyright © 1998

On winter days the snow would glisten like a sea of diamonds in the sun
All bundled up in hat and mittens
I'd be out the door and on the run
To the meadow my place
Beneath branches of icy lace
Arms held but eyes shut closed
I'd lean back and just let go

And I would Fall to Fly
A snow white angel I'd spread my wings to the sky
How I'd glide

But soon I craved the city lights
They seemed far brighter than the moon on snow
Turned in my wings for earthly things
Forgot the feel of clouds on indigo
I was strong, I was proud
Keeping both feet on the ground
I feared love like I feared heights
I just didn't realise

That I can Fall to Fly
A snow white angel I'd spread my wings to the sky
Yes I can Fall to Fly

'cause now you've come along
Like falling snow at dawn
You move me
And with you by my side
We'll soar
We will climb straight to the heaven's skies

Yes I can Fall to Fly
A snow white angel I'd spread my wings to the sky
Yes I can Fall to Fly
'cause now I'm gonna give love a try
fall to fly

On winter days I wait for snow and then I know the angel flew once more
Fall to Fly, Fall to Fly

If every drop of water disappeared from the land
And every drop of ocean suddenly turned to sand
That would all be nothing
Compared to what I'd feel
If you didn't love me

What if I woke up and couldn't hear a sound
And all that I could see was darkness all around
That would still be nothing
Compared to what I'd feel
If you didn't love me

If I could have the world and all that money could buy
And I could travel far beyond the moon and the sky
If they gave me golden wings, well I still couldn't fly without you, nothing would matter

You and I walk beside each other day after day
But there's so much inside me, I never get to say My life would be so empty with nothing left to feel
If you didn't love me
If you didn't love me.

Stay on the road

Lyrics and music by Corrinne May Ying Foo

Corrmay Gourmet Music (ASCAP)

Don't turn your laughing eyes away
You know I love you
There's no need to be afraid
Hearts are made to be broken
They get stronger by the day
I'll take a chance and drop all my defenses
Just to hear you say

How long is the road
How long is the ride
How long is the darkness till we get to the light
Go easy on me
Cause you already know
No matter the distance
I'll stay on the road to your heart

You say I've been a fool too long You wonder why I have the strength to carry on I see through your weakness
Your tough guy iron mask
It's really not that hard or complicated
There's no need to ask

How long is the road
How long is the ride
How long is the darkness till we get to the light
Go easy on me cause you already know
No matter the distance I'll stay on the road to your heart
I'll stay on the road to your heart
I'll stay on the road to your heart

Mr. Beasley

Music and lyrics by Corrinne May Ying Foo
Copyright © 1997 Corrmay Gourmet Music (ASCAP)

You don't have to drive a fancy car
Don't have to quote me Shakespeare just to woo me Yeah I see your nervous laughter when you're trying to crack some joke
Well, you don't fool me
I'd like to see your eyes through those goggles that you're wearing
Don't try to hide away

Just be yourself, Mr. Beasley
I don't need your show of attitude
Coz' it's your soul that makes me fall in love with you

You don't know this but I see you in the church when you are praying
You just move me
And my friend Sue she tells me you've been teaching kids for free
Mr. Philanthropy
I'd like to see your eyes through those goggles that you're wearing
Don't try to hide away

Just be yourself, Mr. Beasley
I don't need your show of attitude
Coz' it's your soul that makes me fall in love with you

Be yourself, Mr. Beasley
I don't need your show of attitude
Coz' it's your soul that makes me fall in love with you

I'd like to see your eyes through those goggles that you're wearing
Don't try to hide away

All that I need

Music and lyrics by Corrinne May Ying Foo
Copyright © 2000 Corrmay Gourmet Music (ASCAP)

I'm sorry that I hurt you I took for granted all you gave so freely to me
I pray it's not too late
To save you from a broken heart
To promise you
I'll make a brand new start
Believe me, when I say

You are all that I need
The only treasure I seek You're the air that helps me breathe
through the darkest night when
I fall down on my knees
I was blind but now I see
You are all that I need

You know I'm far from perfect
Like a child that needs a guiding hand
Can you stay here with me?
I finally understand
You've always been the missing part
Complete the jigsaw puzzle of my heart
Please hear me, when I say

You are all that I need
The only treasure I seek
You're the air that helps me breathe
through the darkest night when
I fall down on my knees
I was blind but now I see
You are all that I need

Please,
let me hear your voice again
Let me hear you say your love will never end
That whatever it takes you'll be there
Believe me, when I say

Walk Away

Music and lyrics by Corrinne May Ying Foo
Copyright © 1997 Corrmay Gourmet Music (ASCAP)

Hey girl, what is the matter?
You're crying your heart out again
Don't lie, girl
This was not some accident
Your bruises, they give you away
Your face sighs in shades of blue purple
Your eyes tell a story of pain

Walk away
You're worth more than he'll ever realise
Baby walk away
Spare yourself this pain
Can't you see that he's not worth it?
You're not meant to be treated this way
Baby walk away

You say that
You really love him
You say that he'll know this someday
But your face still sighs in blue purple
Your eyes tell a story of shame

Walk away
You're worth more
than he'll ever realise
Baby walk away
Spare yourself this pain
Can't you see that he's not worth it?

You've been waiting for his love for so many years
Well girl,
You may not live to see that day
Baby walk away
You're not meant to be treated this way
Baby walk away
Baby walk away
Baby walk away

Will You Remember Me

Music and Lyrics by Corrinne Foo
Copyright © 1998 Corrmay Gourmet Music (ASCAP)

Bare feet tickled by the powdery sand
Pressing footprints along the shore
A vain attempt to leave a testament
That I walked this path before
Will you remember
Will you remember me

My face on the water
Wrinkles with the tide
And vanishes from the ocean's silver screen
Like stars sprinkled in the sky
Forgotten when the sun appears
Will you remember
Will you remember

Wide-eyed wanderer
Search no longer
The light burns bright in you

So I'll leave this kiss wet on your face
My first born son
And pray the wind won't ever blow it dry
I'm sure Jesus had the notion
When it came His time to die
Will you remember
Will you remember me
Will you remember
Will you remember me

Journey

Music and lyrics by Corrinne May Ying Foo
Copyright © 1999 Corrmay Gourmet Music (ASCAP)

It's a long, long journey
Till I know where I'm supposed to be
It's a long, long journey and I don't know if I can believe When shadows fall and block my eyes
I am lost and know that I must hide
It's a long, long journey
Till I find my way home to you

Many days I've spent Drifting on through empty shores
Wondering what's my purpose
Wondering how to make me strong
I know I will falter I know I will cry
I know you'll be standing by my side
It's a long, long journey
And I need to be close to you

Sometimes it seems no one understands
I don't even know why
I do the things I do
When pride builds me up till I can't see my soul
Will you break down these walls and pull me through?

'Cause it's a long, long journey
Till I feel that I am worth the price
You paid for me on calvary
Beneath those stormy skies
When Satan mocks and friends turn to foes
It feels like everything is out to make me lose control
It's a long, long journey
Till I find my way home to you

Everything has its source, including this music and the cd you hold in your hands. As I sit down to write my thank yous, I realise that none of this would be possible without all the people who have been with me at various points along this journey.

God...thank you for your gift of music. I pray that you give me the strength to use it well.

Papa & Mumy, thank you for nurturing and encouraging me in my music. From the time you brought me to Yamaha Music School when I was 4, to the time you helped me buy my first synthesizer, to the time you let me go to Berklee to pursue music...for all your sacrifices and selfless love in letting me do what I need to do with my life (in spite of the fact that it means I have to be half a world away) thank you. I love both of you very much. To my grandparents, Popo, Mama and Kong Kong, for all your love and support. James, my brother, thanks for putting up with me when I was practicing piano all those years and for being my childhood "partner-in-crime"! I love you and hope we can spend more time catching up soon. Kevin, thank you for clothing my songs with your wonderful arrangements and production and for believing in me. Can't wait for the rest of the world to see what an amazing arranger/producer/musician/composer you are. I love you. To all my aunts, Ee Ee's, uncles, cousins and all family members, thank you for your love and support.

To my wonderful band who've helped me play at various gigs in L.A and who've helped to flesh out the songs with their awesome talent and gifts...

Casey, your guitar chops are amazing! I'm still in awe of your discipline in music and the ability you have to add the right touch to the songs you play on. Thank you also for your gift of friendship. Eric, I LOVE the way you play the bridge in "Stay on the road". You're an awesome bass player and I'm honoured to have you play with me and on my cd. Ben, you're an amazing drummer and I'm glad that you agreed to lay down those solid grooves on my cd! Thank you for all the gigs you've played with me and for all the great BBQs! Kenji, thanks for all that great percussion! Todd, thanks for adding your soulful voice to the songs and for the vocal arrangements. Jeannie, thanks for adding your vocals to "Something About You"! It sounds so good. Zach, thanks for adding your voice to "All that I need" and at 1 a.m! Let's watch some more Ally soon.

To my teachers at Berklee: Pat Pattison, for showing me the beauty and craft of lyrics. Jimmy Kachulis, for showing me all those songs and for teaching me why they work! To Jack Perricone, for believing in my voice and songs. To Barbara Jordan, for showing me how songs, deadlines, frameworks and discipline come together.

To my friends in L.A for believing in me and supporting me in this crazy quest: Clinton Jackson, Steve Lu , Joe Shue, Regina Cheng (thanks for helping me with all those background vocals!), Harold Payne, Billy Kent, Michael Sillman & Bill @ Unrurban coffeehouse, Dan Nahmod, NSAI, Just Plain Folks, 2000 ASCAP Lester Sill workshop friends and all my fellow singer-songwriters. Thank you for all the words of encouragement & for all the re-fuelling along the way.
Thanks to Carole King & Carole Bayer Sager for the magical opportunity to co-write "If You Didn't Love Me".

To my friends in Singapore who were there from the start and who let me be a part of their lives as they are in mine. Vivienne, thanks for being one of my closest friends and for believing in me. I know we've probably sung "Longer" more times than we can care to remember but I still miss singing it with you. 'grin' Jophie, thanks for being my friend since we were 7! I love all the memories and times we've shared. Pam, Simon, Ivan, Christina, George, Corey, Julie and all in the NUS Music Ministry for the laughter, the sharing, and the songs. Adrian Tan Tai Loon, Adrian Chia (thanks for the photos and the coffee!), Adrian Leow, Cheng Heng, Steven Bay, Gerard Wong and Daniel Chai for sharing NUS life and for all the humour and friendship. PUNCH friends, especially Alex Lin-I (thanks for the cd cover!), Eddie (a.k.a. "Rui Pin"...the alternative is unprintable!) Daryl, Adrian Song, Sharm, Sharmin, Wui Jin & Leonard for all the jams and harmonies. Louis Lim, thanks for the memories. To Ken Lim at HYPE Records for all the insight into the Singapore music industry. To my friends from RGS, especially RGS NCC and RGS Prefectorial Board, thanks for the friendship and memories. To my friends from Berklee: Tong Jen, Fabian, Sophia, Eunice, Frank Cheng, Alex Chan, Nick Lee, Catherine Boger & Susan Cattaneo for sharing music, life and other crazy things we did at Berklee.

Thanks to Jan Borgensen (@ www.dekana.com) for hosting my web-site. To Kavin Hoo for web-site design. To Alex Lin-I for cd graphic design. To Maggie Lange for legal advice.

To my fans, thank you for your support and for the valuable gift you've given me....the gift of listening.

To everyone else who has given their encouragement, voiced their support or lent a helping hand, please know that I am grateful to everyone of you, & for your kindness. God Bless.
