Jeremy Monteiro

With a musical career spanning more than 30 years, Jeremy Monteiro is one of Singapore's leading musicians. He is an internationally acclaimed performing jazz pianist/singer and composer who has performed with some of the greatest musicians in the world.

Mark Chan

Having devoted his life to the arts, Mark Chan has established himself throughout Asia for his recordings and works with theatre, television and art festivals. His career spans a wide range, where he is a composer, recording artist, performer (singer, flautist, guitarist), poet, painter and photographer.

Phoon Yew Tien

Phoon Yew Tien is regarded as one the great classical composers of our times. His voluminous output covers the entire spectrum of chamber music, songs, music for theatre and concert hall and music for television and film, often combining styles and instruments from diverse regions.

Lee Wei Song, Lee Si Song

Lee Wei Song and Lee Si Song first became known in Singapore for the music they composed for television drama serials. They have now become one of the most popular and well known Chinese pop music composers and producers in Singapore, Taiwan, Hong Kong and China.
