'waiting'

waiting

谁知道我在等什么?
谁知道我在想什么?
我守着黑夜到白昼
等一个未知的结果

谁知道我在想什么?
谁让我如此的难过?
我听着熟悉的老歌
我守着熟悉一扇门
让思念缠绵到白头

Where is the one I've waited for?
The one who'll come to me someday
Is he behind a secret door?
One locked by keys I've thrown away
Is it someone whose face I'll know
Or just a stranger out of view?
Is he an angel from the skies
Or a devil in disguise?
My oldest friend or someone new?

Am I standing in destiny's way?
Do I challenge the power of fate?
Should I hope, should I act, should I pray
Am I meant to do nothing but wait?

Where is the one I've waited for?
The one who'll take me far away
From all this darkness into light
From all the shadows of the night
Into the warm embrace of day
Where is the one who'll understand?
Who'll lead me gently by the hand
Into sunlight, where is he?

The one who'll come to set me free
The one who'll come to set me free.

time

Do you believe? Do you believe in dreams?
Are you afraid of dreaming?
Listen to your dreams
They come from your heart
Do you know what they mean
When you take them all apart?
What do they reveal?
Only truths you're always trying to conceal
From your mind
Are they real? No one knows
Only Time.

Time that doesn't change
Motionless and still
Time that makes you age
The time you often try to kill
And everytime you dream
Time remains suspended as you find
Your way through Time
Each time and time again.

Time goes on, Time is gone
And you long for the times that are gone

All the times that you mourn,
Time goes on, Time is gone, Time goes on,
Time is gone.

Listen to your dreams
They come from your heart
Do you know what they mean
When you take them all apart?
What do they reveal?
Only truths you're always trying to conceal
From your mind
Are they real? No one knows
Only Time.

Time that doesn't change
Motionless and still
Time that makes you age
The time you often try to kill
And everytime you dream
Time remains suspended as you find
Your way through Time
Each time and time again.

Once upon a time in the present day
That was as sublime
As another golden age

Two divided souls
Recognised as kindred spirits
Crossed in time so it seems
Lost in time, we believe
Forced by time and some scheme
Into dreaming

Time that doesn't change
Time that doesn't change

Motionless and still
Motionless and still

Time that makes you age
Time that has you aging

The time you often try to kill
Time you try to kill

Everytime you dream
Time remains suspended as you
Find your way through Time
Each time again.

Listen to your dreams
Crying out to you
Listen to the truth

Listen to your dreams
Listen to the truth
Calling you

Listen to your dreams
Calling out to you
Calling out to you
