WINTER STORY:

Winter Story expresses my inner feeling that has given me the emotional touch of my repertoire. The flute used in this song resembles the cold and quiet moment of the season and the piano represents the warmth in my heart. "Winter Story" has clearly mined deeply into where the music comes from ... my soul. Welcome to my astral plane.

SEASON ROMANCE:

My actual first new age composition starts with "Season Romance". This song has been exceptionally special to me. This is not only my first step towards new age classical music composition but also the inspiration and energy that helps me complete the rest of the numbers in this album.

LIFE JOURNEY:

Life is full of ups and downs. Sometimes you just don't get what you have planned for and sometimes you get too much from what you have asked. "Life Journey" inspires me in search of gaining courage and confidence to face all difficulties and challenges in my life.

CHERISH:

Flowers Blossoms and flowers fade like the daily life I spent on this earth. I began to realize what comes will eventually go. I have learned to cherish every single moment of my time spend with my love ones and friends. As most of those beautiful moments can only be remembered when time passes by.

MEADOW WHISPER:

Those green and clean flocks of carpet like meadow, that smooth breeze caressing through the field. Birds flying freely in the blue bright sky and little flowers growing on the meadow floor like it's smiling to me with their glazing sway whispering to me their greetings.

REMEMBRANCE:

For that someone special who bring hopes and shines into my life, even after they are no longer by my side. It hurts me to see them go and at times I grief the lost of their unconditional love. "Remembrance" is dedication to my late mum and dad as they will always be missed in my heart.

MORNING BREEZE:

Cool wind and beautiful bright sun, taking a slow stroll in a nice and quiet park. Watching children's running, parents laughing, couples holding hands as they passes-by. The morning has never felt so good for a long-long time and I just tell myself this is life. Don't you think so?

EMBRACING MOMENT:

When did your last memory reminds you of that warm embracing moment? Mine was the moment when my little boy was born. It's that embracing moment that words are unable to describe. That very second I realized that god have loved me more than I have asked and now I know that my life will never be alone anymore.

SWEET MEMORIES:

Candies, streets stalls, trees that I used to climb on and that little street where I ran from corner to corner. Those memories have accompanied my up growing, though it only play a small part in my life but those were the sweet memories that I can keep in my heart till the day I die.

THE SONG OF NATURE:

Nature brings life and life destroys them all. Global warming, disappearing rain forest and endangered species were threatened to their extinction for commercial benefits and gains. Let's give nature back to nature and let's learn to appreciate the beauty of it while we still have it with us.
