A HEARTSTRINGS 4:05

Stephen Francis, Claressa Monteiro, Clement Chow, Faridah Ali,
Karen Xavier, Shiekh Tahir, Jai
Lyrics & Music: Jeremy Monteiro

Tell me what you see, when you look around you, when you see the people passing you by Does everything seem fine? Did you take the time?
To look beyond the smiles and the laughter?

Hey! why should I care? Isn't life just unfair?
No one said that it has to be easy
And if I should care, if I reached to share,
How could something I do, help at all?

Together we share,
together we show them that we care
I know that it's the only way
Together we care, and share, I hope,
That all of us be happy as one.

If everyone just tries, to spare a thought each day, and give a little once in a while It isn't very hard, just try and you'll see, a little help goes a long way.

And if I should try, every once in awhile, would it really help someone in need?
Now I understand, there's only one way to Love is to care and to share

I WILL 3:35

Kaye Hamid
Lyrics & Music: Ben Salleh

If only you could change your mind and give me a chance
I promise you that I'm gonna love you even more Deep in my heart and deep in my soul there will be no other man who could steal my heart away

I will love you all that I can
I will please you best that I can
Even though it's hard to make it
but one thing I'll be sure
I'm gonna love you more everyday of my life

Day after day and night after night can I help myself to think 'bout the times I did you wrong
Love can be right and love can be true One thing I would like to is just to give my love to you
* Repeat 1st chorus
If only you could realize and just a little sacrifice
I'm sure we make it if we try

I will love you all that I can
I will please you best that I can
Even though it's hard to make it
but one thing I'll be sure
I'm gonna love you more
Every single day of my life.

WHAT WILL LIFE BE NOW?

Sherry Aljunied 3:24
Lyrics & Music: Henson Lim

Like the wind that moves the tide,
You have always been my guide.
But yesterday, I heard you say
Words that left me, oh, so far away.

Now I'm left here on my own Wonderin' 'bout the love I've known
Oh why the pain, I can't explain,
But I know my love for you remains.

Chorus
What will life be now?
Truth has brought me down
Love is gone, I've lost what I have found
What will life be now?

Isn't it a crying shame?
Is it you, or I, to blame?
We had our times, we had our fears
Now it's gone, it had to disappear

Chorus
What can I do?
What can I say?
I'm just crying all my nights away.

MUSIC FROM MY HEART 3:05Monte Cristo
(Jeremy & Claressa Monteiro)Lyrics: Maurice Ryal/ Jeremy Monteiro
Music: Jeremy Monteiro

I'm just another girl, that nobody knows and maybe never will
And I'm no superstar whose songs can save the world or change the way you feel

But why can't I just tell you how I feel Must I have a name just to sing a song for you

 Just listen to the music that comes from my heart with all the hope in love that someone can have 'Cause I sing this song to all the world tonight
Open up your heart and share the love inside

Now not too long ago some people got around
And sang we are the world "We are the children"
And if their message got to you
To give a helping hand, I know you'll understand

But still I'll try and tell you how I feel I'll may never change the world but I can sing my song for all

Just listen . . . (Chorus **)

And Lionel Ritchie, Michael Jackson,
Quincy Jones and friends

(Maybe I can change the world)

SIDE BY SIDE 4:00Mark Chan

Lyrics & Music: Mark Chan

Take it slow, no need to rush
Just let go, there's more than enough
Pushing and fussing and fighting outside

Close the door and dim the lights
Let's explore the cool of the night
Whatever we want we can be side by side

All the pain
Every drop of rain we've cried
Every dream
We've kept bottled up inside
Has been released
We no longer have to hide
Whatever we want we can be side by side

Throw the dice and let it roll
Break the ice, shake off self-control
Let's go with the flow and ride with the tide

Is it time? There's time to tell
Do we rhyme? We're rhyming so well
Whatever we want we can be side by side

All the pain
Every drop of pain we've cried
Every dream
We've kept bottled up inside
Has been released
We no longer have to hide
Whatever we want we can be side by side
Side by side
Side by side

BI'M CRYING FOR YOU 4:25*Sherry Aljunied

Lyrics & Music:

Rakesh s/o Ramkumar Sharma

I bury my face down in my hands
Why I cry I don't understand
Maybe its because I'm left here all alone Maybe its because

I know your heart is made of stone
Each time I turn around it's your face I see
I close my eyes you're my fantasy
How could you leave me standing here
When you said you would wipe away my tears
Maybe its because I'm left here on my own
But I guess that you were lying
Now you see me crying

For your heart, its made of stone
Life is an illusion full of pain
This reality is making me insane
Oh I know how it feels
To be thrown right to the ground
No one is around to pick you up when you are down
I said no one is around to help you up when you are done
I'm crying for you

LEATHER & LACE 3:40Kaye Hamid

Lyrics & Music: Kevin Wood

I wear my leather & lace
I'm not just a pretty face
When I let my hair hang down
You'll be glad that I'm around (She a lady) don't mess with me
I can be dangerous you'd better believe
I go crazy life is fun for me
But it wasn't always so easy

I wear my diamonds & pearls
You could say I'm a classy girl
Man with dollar don't make my scene
I don't impress that easily (She's a lady) don't mess with me
I can be dangerous you'd better believe
I go crazy life is fun for me
But it wasn't always so easy

I can walk into a room and people say
Ha ha who's that girl
I can turn head's like I'm turning
A corner in a car (to fast)
People say I'm the kind of girl
You don't mess around with I'll only tell you once, I'll make it clear

(Repeat 1st verse)

NEVER THOUGHTI'D COME THIS FAR 4:40*Monte Cristo*(Jeremy & Claressa Monteiro)

Lyrics: Jeremy Monteiro/ Claressa Monteiro

Music: Jeremy Monteiro

Believe our love was real,
But now we're facing some stormy times
My dreams are finally coming true
No there's no way I'm stopping here

You think I'm being unfair
I guess we just can't compromise
Is it so hard to understand
Paradise is the bright lights why Can't you see that.

Never thought I could come this far,
See all the things that I can be now
That rising star is not so far,
My turn has come to hit the heights now,
No looking back.

The way to go is up,
No need to wait any longer,
Fame is calling you bet I'll answer,
Don't hold me back,
It's almost mine now.

Guess I'm here on my own,
But no way does it bring me down
I need to feel I'm in control
I guess it's goodbye
Don't wanna see you

CHORUS

I see the stars in the sky,
I'll feel alive when I'm shining too
No need for cupid's arrows yet,
When tomorrow comes, I know
People will see that. CHORUS

FOREVER IN MY ARMS 4:15Mark ChanLyrics & Music: Mark Chan
Arranged and produced by Sidney Tan

I wake and see the morning sun shining just for me and it's where I've got to be

It's been too long, since I heard your laughter ringing in my song and the music makes me strong

There's too much pain
There's too much rain
The cloud must part
I want to see your face again

I want to live forever in your arms
I've stayed away too long
I need you much too strong
I want to live forever in your arms
Weather the storm
Sleep in the warm
I want to live forever
Forever, forever in your arms

Now I know
There's no other place my lonely heart can go Where the quiet waters flow

I need you now
No more waiting, no more where, no why, no how
This has got to be the hour

There's too much pain
There's too much rain
The cloud must part
I want to see your face again

I want to live forever in your arms
I've stayed away too long
I need you much too strong
I want to live forever in your arms
Weather the storm
Sleep in the warm
I want to live forever
Forever, forever in your arms
