In The Arms Of Agony...

Behind The Mask

The dawn of a new day came
Light fills the air with hate
Silence is gone leaving memories behind
History of agony remains

The fear that hides behind the mask
Is seeking it's freedom
To turn away the past

Different faces with different names
The day made them all look and feel the same
But still I can't believe
Even though I've seen what lies beneath

Those tears flows silently unheard
The face of reality remains unknown

The flame on the candle
Slowly fades away
Leave behind an emptiness
That promises to stay

Illucination

Voices whispering in your head
And live within your mind
Speaking words of wisdom
Sending shivers down your spine

You close your eyes
But those voices still remain
You know that they have come to live
Inside of you to stay

You turn around and walk away
Into the blackened night
Hoping to end this game and face
The next day of light

You can't feel this pain within
Even though the poison is running in your veins
It's inside of you and all you know
It is making you insane

You can't control this demon
The one that you can't see
Trapped in it's silent prison
Will you be free?

What lies beneath?
You have to find the answer
Before it lives eternally...Eternity

Those voices now they're singing
The siren of the dead
Refrain enslaved by madness
Sending shivers into your head

Stranger In The Mirror

What did you see?
When you look into the mirror
Is it just your own reflection?
With that look of wonder

Here we meet again
I'm here to make amends
Come to me my friend
And take my solemn hand

You must not be afraid
I'm here not to make you go insane
This is not another game
Join me and your life will never
Be the same...

Can you tell me?
The reflection that you see
Is it made of steel?
Shaped by reality to make it real

The one inside the mirror
He's the one they call him stranger
He tries to make you feel
That his world is for real

He strikes you from his lair
And comes to you in your nightmare
Once he cuts you clean
He will shatter all your dreams

When he's inside of you
There's nothing you can do
You're on your own
Remember...he must be overthrown

Images Of Torment

What is this that lies before me?
Destruction by hands of hate
Should I believe in what I've seen?
Is this the truth, is this reality?

I can't believe this moment
These images from the mirrors of torment
Dance right before my eyes
And drifts deep into my mind

What is happening here?
The children are crying
I sense anguish and fear
Cause people are dying

Am I seeing real?
My eyes are they trying to fool me again
I close my eyes and open
To see it all remains the same

Why must we pay
For sins we had never done
The truth is still unknown
We are not the one

Where's the sense of humanity
Has it gone lost forever
The people are dying can't they see
They are humans blinded by devil's desire

Caught in this web of deceit
Thrown alone in the dark
We stand await for justice
To shine on us her tender light

Time is running away from reality
This can't be our destiny
The gates of freedom that stands await
Perished by hands of hate

Agony's Dream

Agony is calling my name
Trying to lead me into the space
Where mankind once had failed
To realize this pain

The pain that they created
By their own greed
The evolution had been made
To satisfy their needs

What is left behind?
Vanquished hopes and dreams
That once stood beneath the sun
And the memories...Lost in time

Can't they remember?
Have they forgotten?
Those days of horror
When they took away the nature's silence

They can't deny
The truth is here
It's time for them to realize
Those memories that came with fear

Agony is calling my name
Agony is calling my name
It's time for them to realize
Those memories...

Sky High Under The Influence (Instrumental)

Within Nowhere

It came to me in my slumber
Swallowed me from within down under
Gripping me I can't break free
Suffocating me I can't breathe

I tried to twist and turn
Forcing me to pray and yearn
I'm down to my last breath
I must regain my strength

Where am I?
Why am I here?
Trapped in this place
Where no one is near

Search for the way
To seek my solace
Why am I here?
I'm trapped within nowhere

Is there any chance for me?
This is not the place to be
Still I have to search my way
Before the night begins the day

If I fail to penetrate
To end this invisible hate
What is to become of me?
This is not the place to be
