KEN
LIM

*T*hese songs came from somewhere within me.

You could say they are a distillation of my life's knowledge and experiences to date.

A few were born from an inner cry against injustice.

One practically wrote itself out during meditation.

Most have a message.

I hope you will be touched by them.

1. Simplify

(Ken Lim) © 1997

You don't need much to survive, just water & air Shelter and a little food, enough to get by The more you have, the more you find the problems multiply Simplify, just simplify, just simplify

Chorus:

Hold on to what you are there's no one else like you In the whole wide world, in the universe that is so true You are what you are
there's no one else like you Just be the best that you can be that's all you can do

There are times you may find some will criticize that you may not be good enough some doubt will arise
You got to know who you are deep down inside Strive and work real hard until you get it right

Chorus

There's no point to look back what might or could have been Time once gone cannot come back what's the use of regret?
There's no need to expect what's next or coming by Things may change and you may find it's a whole waste of time

Chorus

(Repeat first verse)

2 Where is Your Soul?

(Ken Lim) © 1997

It's a lovely city in the sun
There's money to be made for everyone
The streets are so clean, there's a lot of green There's a lot to be thankful for Such a lovely city in the sun

There's money to be made for everyone
You can dine like a king you can buy anything But have you asked what you're living for?

And I hope you don't mind me asking this 'cause, something to me seems to be amiss
Where is your soul, my brother?
Where is your soul, my sister?
Where is your soul, my friend?
Oh where is your soul, in the end?

Such a busy city in the sun
Money to be made, no time for fun
The Condo, the Car, those other damn C's Is that what you're living for?

And what's this I sense, is it fear in the air?
Then I got to ask: do you really care?
What do you fear, my brother?
What do you fear, my sister?
What do you fear, my friend?
Oh what do you fear in the end?

And I hope you don't mind me asking this There's got to be more to life than this
Where is your soul, my brother?
Where is your soul, my sister?
Where is your soul, my friend?
Oh where is your soul in the end?

3. The Blood Flowed Freely

(Ken Lim) © 1990

It was in the June of 1989 that the students at Tiananmen Square they gave of their lives And all for the cause of freedom and liberty All the things you and I believe in democracy

Tiananmen Square (8 times)

The tanks and many more they couldn't stop one man But that was just for a moment a moment or so The courage of this single man was for all the world to see But the world couldn't stop the killing of humanity

Tiananmen Square (8 times)

Oh the blood flowed freely at Tiananmen Square

It was in the June of 1989
the sound of machine guns echoed in the air And in the summer of 1989 they said hundreds had died at Tiananmen Square

Tiananmen Square (8 times)

Oh the blood flowed freely at Tiananmen Square

4. Gotta Take a Chance

(Ken Lim) © 1981

You gotta take a chance gotta take a chance on love, oh love
You gotta take a chance gotta take a chance on love, sweet love 'cause love is so very hard to hold Take a chance on love and it may grow

Chorus:

Just follow your heart's direction Don't stinge on love and affection Throw off your shams and pretensions Give in to your heart's direction

You gotta give some time gotta give some time to love, oh love
You gotta give some time
gotta give some time to love, sweet love With time you'll know then you'll be sure Give some time to love, and watch it grow

Chorus

(Repeat first verse)

Na nas . . .

5. Look Beneath the Skin

(Ken Lim) © 1991

Red or yellow, black or white brown or in between
It doesn't matter what you see aren't we all the same within Wouldn't it be great if everyone were to look within Look beneath the skin

They may speak a different language
'cause they come from a far away land Wear a different dress but I hope you will understand If we could just take a moment and think it over again And look beneath the skin

Do you believe in Jesus Christ Well he may believe in Buddha There are some who follow Mohammed and some who follow Krishna Isn't it strange that everyone Think their God is the only one But isn't He the same?

Red or yellow, black or white
brown or in between
It doesn't matter what you see
aren't we all the same within
Wouldn't it be great if everyone
Were to look beneath the skin Aren't we all human beings (3 times)

6. Something Old, Something New

(Ken Lim) © 1991

Ain't no use pretending things are gonna be the same again Nothing you can do can change what's past and gone
So pick yourself up
And start over again
Tomorrow's gonna be a brand new day

Chorus:
Something old's gotta make way for something new
It's a fact of life you know it's true
As sure as the night must fall for the sun to come through Something old's gotta make way
for something new

What can I say that hasn't been said before Life is full of changes that you ought to know There're ups and downs in life Someday we'd all have to go So in the meantime let's go with the flow

Chorus:
As sure as the night must fall for the sun to come through (2 times)

7. Baby-cryin'-in-the-background blues

(Ken Lim) © 1979

Saturday night all alone Sitting here in my lonely room
Just pickin' on any ol' tune
I hear a baby cry in my neighbour's room

Chorus:

Baby cryin' in the background
Baby cryin' in the background
Baby cryin' in the background
I've got the baby-cryin'-in-the-background blues

Got my eye on sweet young Sue Oh sweet Sue I love you Maybe someday when we are sure Gonna have a baby cry in the background too

Chorus

8. You Can't Hurt Me

(Ken Lim) © 1997

You can't hurt me
I won't let you
I will build a fortress strong
You can't hurt me with your wrong

Though you taunt me and you wrong me
Let me hold my head up high Let me fight until I die

There is much more to life than to pity and grief
Give me hope, give me strength,
give me love, give me peace
I can do all that I want
I can conquer all my fears
All I need is to believe and be strong

You can't hurt me
I won't let you
I will build a fortress strong
You can't hurt me if I'm strong

There is much more to life than to
pity and grief
Give me hope, give me strength,
give me love, give me peace
I can do all that I want
I can conquer all my fears
All I need is to believe and be strong

Oh please God help me believe and be strong

9. For Baby

(John Denver) ©*

I'll walk in the rain by your side
I'll cling to the warmth of your hand
I'll do anything to help you understand
I love you more than anybody can

Chorus:

And the wind will whisper your name to me
Little birds will sing along in time Leaves will bow down when you walk by
and morning bells will chime

I'll be there when you're feelin' down to kiss away the tears if you cry I'll share with you all the happiness I've found a reflection of the love in your eyes

And I'll sing you the songs of the rainbow Whisper of the joy that is mine Leaves will bow down when you walk by
and morning bells will chime

I'll walk in the rain by your side
I'll cling to the warmth your hand
I'll do anything to help you understand
I love you more than anybody can

10. Music is My Life

(Ken Lim) © 1990

Chorus:

Music is my life
Music is my way
I believe in music
And I believe in me I put the two together to sing my song for you Nothing I like better than
to sing my song for you

I don't know why it took so long for me to realize The power that lives inside of me is waiting to be free And everyday I thank the Lord for the beauty that's within me Haven't you heard the good Lord lives within you and me

Chorus

And now it's time to realize it's up to you and me
The power that lives inside of us
is waiting to be free And what it takes is to find the path to set your spirit free The energy of the universe breathes in you and me
