

Title : Find Me An Angel

Composer : X' Ho

Lyricist : X' Ho

...Heaven will be hell...

Finding something right can be so wrong
Sticking to your guns can get you blown
What am I suppose to do with this load?

Looking for the right can get you left
With nothin' but a hole right in the head
Everything can sound like deader than dead

Chorus ) :

Find me, find me an angel
Find me, find me an answer
Cos I don't care much anymore
(Not anymore)

Waiting for your time can take so long
Til your patience's gone and longing's strong
Strong with self-defeat with no release

(Chorus)

Sometimes, all the people,
They will tell you to stay down
But knowing my frustration and my hunger
I can't stay down, I won't stay down
That's what I've found
Finding something right.. .

(Chorus)
