

Title : Big Chip Blues

Composer : X' Ho

Lyricist : X' Ho

I've got a big chip on my shoulder
It's sitting very heavy
It's turned me onto shifty
And unrepentantly slimy
As shifty as this country

Heavy, man, it's heavy
But then, I've taken heavy
And now I got used to heavy
Mere mortals are blind to it

Oh yes, he's pretty shifty
Big Brother, he is heavy
He wants it nothing less than heavy
He's heavy and a snivelin' bully

Now, I love the fact he's heavy
That chip can crack so easy
That chip that sits on my shoulder
A heavy, shifty, slimy, light chip, it is!
I've got a big chip on my shoulder
It's sitting very heavy
It's turned me into shifty
And unrepentantly slimy...

And its name, its name is Singapore
