

Title : Travelator

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

Looking at my life in search of some reflection
Nothing seems to mirror the way that I'm feeling
Working out the problem, I alter my direction
And stray
From the grey
Straight into a technicolour section
From "Stay" into "Going away"

Chorus

On a Travelator going nowhere
On a trip to get a change of air
I hope to clear my mind
Who knows what I might find
Out there
I'm getting somewhere
Somewhere, nowhere

La la la etc.

Panorama starts unfolding right before me
Scenery improving the further I travel
Skies are crystal clear when once they were so stormy
But now
Not a cloud!
Don't know what the future's holding for me
Just want to be shouting out loud

Repeat chorus

La la la etc.

On a Travelator going nowhere
Somewhere
Nowhere
On a Travelator going nowhere
Somewhere
Nowhere

Repeat chorus

La la la etc.
