

Title : Faster Than Yourself

Composer : Leonard Ng

Lyricist : Leonard Ng

I know how you love the sound of laughter
After the rain
I know how you love to taste the sweetness
The weakness of pain

You wait for life and love to give the answer
Its there at your feet, just look down
You really don't have to fly or be a dancer
Or run faster than yourself

Are you looking for an antidote to freedom;
A reason to move
Don't fall in love with Love and not the person
An aversion to truth

Don't wait for life and love to give the answer
Its there at your feet, just look down
You really don't have to fly or be a dancer
Or run faster than yourself
