

Title : Somewhere

Composer : Joe Curiale / Tom Deluca

Lyricist : Joe Curiale / Tom Deluca

Empty pockets and hungry eyes
A voice that calls from the heart
A mother calms her baby's cries of hunger

Angry words and restless nights
These are the signs of the times
But I still believe the sun will shine tomorrow

Somewhere in this world
There is a light
And it's getting stronger
Somewhere there's a dream
That's burning bright

Hold on tight to what we believe
Reach deep inside to your soul
Only the truth can set us free forever

Brothers and sisters
If we stand tall
We can reach the power of heaven
And rise above it all

Love is a stranger
A thief in the shadows that nobody knows
A voice in the wilderness
Is calling, shouting, stronger and stronger
