

Title : Count Our Blessings

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

IVY

Look at the stars, they are so bright

AH HOCK

They all came out to say goodnight

IVY

Wish I could keep one as a treasure

AH HOCK

Wish I could stay up here forever

Life feels so different when

I'm up here

IVY

I could so easily fall in love here

AH HOCK

I've never ever been that lucky

Does it feel nice?

IVY

Haven't either, so don't ask me.

IVY

Listen, the city is so quiet

AH HOCK

not like down there, a noisy riot

IVY

This makes me miss my little hometown

AH HOCK

Don't be so sad, you're not alone now

Come to the roof when you feel lonely

IVY

Give stars a chance to get to know me

AH HOCK

If you come up, I better warn you
I might be here

IVY

Be warned too -I might just join you.

GIRLS

Ahhh... Wooo...

GUYS

Ahh... Wooo... Ahhh

IVY

When I arrived I was uncertain
Life was like a curtain
That I hid behind

AH HOCK

When you arrived the air got fresher
You brought back the pleasure
Of living for the night

IVY & AH HOCK

Funny how life is full of changes
Funny how friends are made from strangers
Since life will always keep us guessing
We might as well just go on
BUT count our blessings
Look at the stars
And count our blessings...
