

Title : Fall To Fly

Composer : Corrinne May Ying Foo

Lyricist : Susan Cattaneo

On winter days the snow would glisten like a sea of diamonds in the sun
All bundled up in hat and mittens
I'd be out the door and on the run
To the meadow my place
Beneath branches of icy lace
Arms held out eyes shut closed
I'd lean back and just let go

And I would Fall to Fly
A snow white angel I'd spread my wings to the sky
How I'd glide

But soon I craved the city lights
They seemed far brighter than the moon on snow
Turned in my wings for earthly things
Forgot the feel of clouds on indigo
I was strong, I was proud
Keeping both feet on the ground
I feared love like I feared heights
I just didn't realise

That I can Fall to Fly
A snow white angel spread my wings to the sky
Yes I can Fall to Fly

'cause now you've come along
Like falling snow at dawn
You move me
And with you by my side
We'll soar
We will climb straight to the heaven's skies

Yes I can Fall to Fly
A snow white angel spread my wings to the sky
Yes I can Fall to Fly
'cause now I'm gonna give love a try
Fall to fly

On winter days I wait for snow and then I know the angel flies once more
Fall to Fly, Fall to Fly
