

Title : Mercy

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist :

You came along like the king of the world
As if you belong in the heart of every girl
Now something is wrong, you're not even the best
Yet I've known all along I'd fall just like the rest
When you looked at me, you saw deep inside
You said this was to be, stole my heart and read my mind
I just couldn't see-what was wrong or right

Mercy Mercy me,
Mercy Mercy me
Show some mercy please
And set your prisoner free
Mercy, have mercy on me

"This is the way I should be controlled
Like you used to say, a bad girl should be told
How she out to behave, so I'll listen to you
Though I must get away somehow from being used"
I don't know if I can carry on
What if one day I woke and you were gone?
I'd have my freedom, be released but not for long
You'd be there somewhere-big and strong!
