

Title : Lost In The Wind

Composer : Martin Tang

Lyricist : Ray Kelly

1) Nothing lasts forever or stays the same.
And everything must change,
But yet we can't believe.
The time has come to go our separate ways

2) Once you said you loved me not long ago.
Was it make believe or was it just another girl
Who stole your heart away

CHORUS

*Lost in the wind (Through the fire and the pain)
I'm left crying in the rain
I can't hold back
My spirits in the wind* (X2)

3) Now that it's all over
We've made mistakes
We go on with our lives.
Though memories will remain
You know that I will not come back again

(Solo)

Though I'm free.
I'm running with the wind
Oh I wish I could turn back time.
Start once again

Repeat CHORUS and Fade Out
