

Title : For My Girl

Composer : Box

Lyricist : Kit Chan

Remember when a dream was all you've got
Yet it made you happy, you didn't need much
It's not true that life gets more complicated
It's the people that got more screwed up

I know I'll miss you but I can't stand still
The world's before me beyond that hill
The unknown is beckoning, daring me to try
It's time to stretch these wings, and fly.

This song is for my girl
Wherever you are
I hope you can be brave
And don't chicken out
This song is for my girl
You know who you are
This ain't goodbye
I'm just checking out

Hey, I've been there & I know it's rough
You're still so young but you feel burnt out
But baby, living a lie is much more tough
Throw caution to the wind & don't give up

I know I'll miss you but I can't stand still
The world's before me beyond that hill
The unknown is beckoning, daring me to try
It's time to stretch these wings, and fly.
