

Title : Wareligion

Composer : Kathir / Shiva

Lyricist : Kathir

Pathetic display of unjustified aggression
Killing of mortals in the name of religion
You kill your other self and you think it's God's will Not knowing that you've been victimised by your false ego

Instead of fighting on the battlefields
Wage the war on the mental plane

Your mind is now misleading you
Enslaved in a cell of dogmatism

(Solo: Alvin)

You call him Father, but are you a worthy child?
If He is so merciful, why are you so merciless?

All apparent dissension and conflicts will fade into obscurity when you see the Unity behind this Diversity
With whom can you fight, if there's only One Contemplate!

Wage the war on the mental plane
Kill the ego, which breeds ignorance

Seek Shanti, Abide in Shanti
Om Shanti Shanti Shanti
