

Title : Till

Composer : Ken Lim

Lyricist : Ken Lim

Swept aside thoughts of you
Went against my love for you
Did the worst thing I could do
To hurt you

Failed to think of what will be
If you should walk away from me
Closed my eyes and lost myself
To a lie

Chorus

I'll never be alright
Till you are back to me
I can hardly breathe

I'll never feel complete
Till my word is your trust
Till you find me again
With your love

Everyday seem the same
Nothing else matters anyway
Time won't help when I'm late
I'm alone

I strayed though I knew I was lost
Can't forgive myself for being wrong
To lose someone that I now know
I live for

Bridge

All that I ask is another chance
To be someone that I wasn't then
I need you to be back to me
