

YOUTH STATION

STAGE

BY RIVER VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL

*This is the story of a young daydreamer
Too tired to close his eyes
Love wasn't warm enough on Sunny Island
So he fled far from real life*

*Just like the sun
His heart was ablaze with Passion and fun
And pulsed to the song that his dreams were singing*

*Fall in love with music
And spill colours brightly on life's every page
Dance like no one's watching
The applause has never made you feel this way*

All the world's a stage

*This is the story of a young unbeliever
Who broke out from her disguise
She's disillusioned by the rhyme or the reasons
That couldn't ever really satisfy*

*But she picks up her guitar
Reminds her just how far she's come, to see
That life is a never-ending movie*

*Fall in love with music
And spill colours brightly on life's every page
Dance like no one's watching
The applause has never made you feel this way*

All the world's a stage

*Woah, take a bow
Never was there ever a time like now
Woah, hear the sound
Of the future crying out aloud
The future calling out to us
Maybe that's where we are found*

*Fall in love with music
And spill colours brightly on life's every page
Dance like no one's watching
The applause has never made you feel this way*
