

Title : Cradle For My Soul

Composer : Rajendra

Lyricist : Koi

As I lay in bed, I'm not afraid
Cause someone's watching over me
Now through this darkness I could see

I find it so hard, don't know how to start
To tell you how it feels to know
I can sleep in this cradle for my soul

Chorus:

Turn on my light, sit by my side
Embrace me all night, and be my guide
Can you hear my heartbeat and my cries?
Soothe my sadness with sweet replies

Your loving words
Heals me when I'm hurt
In times when I was headstrong
You did not desert me
Though I was wrong

I know that someday, I'll bravely face
The lessons in life I will go through
To ever learn to love like you
