

Title : Love Don't Come Easy

Composer : Dennis Lim

Lyricist : Gary Lim

Gonna be sorry there's no denying
Must be my feeling that wouldn't relieve me
There's a reason laid so clearly
Love don't come easy

Sorrow surrounds me closing my heart
& lack of my caring to show you my affection
But after this trail I must remember never
To take love for granted

Couldn't imagine your love is so demanding
Fair share of caring
It's you that all matters
When you left me shattered
It's only your love could kill this misery

Come back my darling don't be so cruel
Changing for better that's what I'm gonna do
After all those times we'd been together
Love don't come easy

(Repeat Chorus & last verse)
