

Title : Shine

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

Whenever you're troubled
When bad times are bursting every bubble
Don't get swallow up by the current
Or drown in the torrent of pain

Get lost in the city
Start walking away from self-pity
Just clear all the doubts from your mind
Look inside for the light and you'll find

You gonna shine, you'll make it
Shine awaking, shine and shake it away
Surely you shine, can do it
Shine, can prove it
Shine, and cheer it away
You gonna shine

So you've got problems
If you hadn't, you'll be abnormal
It's all part and parcel of growing
And living and knowing you wrong

When you most recover
From failure or loss of a lover
Remember you've only one life
So decide to be fine and in time

Life has it sorrows and downs
And your worries and frown everyday
So all your blessings you count and you save
I'm gonna shine them away
