

Title : Ivy

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

FRANKIE

I still remember
Sixth of December
That rainy day I looked her way
I knew that love was here to stay

She had a smile
that brightened the morning
A certain style
that got myself falling head over heels
She was the girl I'd been waiting for Clever and sweet when I was with her she made me feel free
made me complete

I-I-I-Ivy I love you
But where can you be?
My-I-I-I-Ivy I want you
Right here next to me
I need you to make me whole
I want you to have and hold
What can I do
How can I prove
I-I-I love you
My Ivy, I do.

GUYS

Shoo wo doo wo

FRANKIE

I miss the walks hand in hand
Our bare feet in the sand
And the wind's dancing
fingers in your hair
I miss the long quiet talks
As we ended our walks

At the door of your place
Where we'd part for just one more day

I-I-I-Ivy I love you
But where can you be?
My-I-I-I-Ivy I want you
Right here next to me
I need you to make me whole
I want you to have and hold
What can I do
How can I prove
I-I-I love you
My Ivy, I do
My Ivy, I do.

I miss the walks hand in hand
Our bare feet in the sand
And the wind's dancing
fingers in your hair
I miss the long quiet talks
As we ended our walks
At the door of your place
Where we'd part for just one more day