

Title : I Won't Be There

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

For the seventh time
You will call and you'll find
No one picks up the phone
No one home, no reply
In a little while
You might give one more try
Should I answer your call?
Should I, just to be kind?

BRIDGE

But once, not long ago
I couldn't get you out of my mind.
So you knew it, and you blew it.
You come running back to me,
And what do you find?

CHORUS

I won't be there, I won't be there
Woh baby, I won't be there.
(Repeat)

When I needed you
You were not to be found
You just stayed away
Said you were out of town.
Now you re-emerge
And you're a little bit down
So you look me up
Honey I'm not around.

(REPEAT BRIDGE)

(REPEAT CHORUS)
