

Title : Another Cold War

Composer : Band Of Slaves

Lyricist : Ian Xavier

we have made it through another cold war sickens me to know that there will be another why do we always have to fight over a silly old stone henge border no way they say we're gonna mediate others say we'd only agitate I hope someday they'll appreciate that the power of love will always conquer hate oh brother we are from the same old tribe forefathers ago we're born by the rhine now generations divided into sides I hope someday all things will be fine in berlin they built a wall in the middle of the city hoping to separate the reds from the whites if you ask me this crusade was such a pity now all they wanna do is get over the line it's such a pity it's such a pity it's such a pity it's such a pity cold war and its riding high
