Thank God for the Internet
Or it's back to the 80s
Thank God for the Internet
Or it's goodbye to liberties

Mr. Brown, you've got a super blog there
But tell me, are you eyeing Sunday Times?
A column could be waiting for you to pen
You'll be the next Talking Cock big time

We're talking big time – SPH
A steppin' stone for your bright future
Bar chok mee is funny just for now
You'll be forgiven in time, for sure

Mr. Brown, your blog is popular
Attracting even Today paper
Just for printing you, you little blogger
Today got ticked off with a bit of bover

But nothing we can't handle at all
You are talking about Singapore
We'll even sue Far Eastern Econ Review
So, what's a little Mr. Brown like you!

Mr. Brown, you're a liberty
Mr. Brown, you prickly liberty
Mr. Brown, you're a liberty
Hail-hail, great liberty
And so the revolution has begun, that's why...
We must, we must, we must increase our bust...
