

Title : Unattainable Girl

Composer : VerticalRush

Lyricist : Esmond Wee

Grace the cover of a magazine
Her face pops on to my TV screen
Posters, billboards, everything I see
Doesn't help she's on MTV

It consumes me when I fix that stare
My conscience pricks but I don't care
Perceptions lost and if not, warped
Of this species made by God

She's out of this world
And I'm outta my world
Take me outta this place
Get me outta this phase

Standing tall at 184
She looks real good on my bedroom door
Head to toe yeah, she's so fine
Wishing everyday that she'd be mine

For this illusion cannot be
Living in this lurid fantasy
More thought love respect for her
I gotta change those dark desires

She is, unattainable girl
She is, unattainable girl
