

Title : Here I Am

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

Take heart, hero's gonna take you away
A bad start doesn't push you out of the game.
This time, you'll be high and dry, you'll be
Sleeping your worries away
It's no crime to be satisfied when you see
The light of day
Your hope's scattered like a rose in the wind
It's no joke when the enemy is the king.
If you ordinarily would be bowed down, looking away,
Make do with a safe and sound fantasy:
It all will change.

CHORUS

Here I am. entering your locked room.
Here I am, opening the door.
Here I am, not a moment too soon.
Here I am could you ask for more?

Big dreams often get you carried away
When extremes complicate reality fades.
This time, you won't have to bat an eye, don't move
Just wait and see.
The fine line between yes and no will lose the chase
And you'll be out of the danger zone.

(REPEAT CHORUS)
