

Title : That's My Singapore

Composer : Joel Foo Hsien-Yang

Lyricist : Sheldon Lee Shao Guang, Joel Foo Hsien-Yang

Rise up in the mornin'
Hear birds singing in the trees
That's my Singapore
Look out of the window
Watching people exercise
That's my Singapore
Sit at the breakfast table
Reading headlines on the news
That's my Singapore
Thinking of my future
Lookin' forward to each day
That's my Singapore

We just don't realise how fortunate we are
Sometimes we wonder how we ever came this far
Don't take for granted that these good things never end
Let's work together everybody lend a hand

CHORUS

It's a homely feelin'
Everyone here is so nice
We share a common dream
Homely feelin'
Living here's like paradise
The place is clean and green

Travellin' to the workplace
Meeting colleagues and my peers
That's my Singapore
Workin' nine to five
Sometimes working even more
That's my Singapore
Feelin' tired and stressed out
I'm on the verge of passing out
That's my Singapore
Leaving work for home
It's the best place to unwind
That's my Singapore

We just don't realise how fortunate we are
Sometimes we wonder how we ever came this far
Don't take for granted that these good things never end
Let's work together everybody lend a hand

CHORUS

INTERLUDE

CHORUS

END