

Title : Runaway

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

Looking for a reason to lie
Are there many places to hide?
If you run away from your feelings you'll find
There is no turning back from what you left behind

What's the point of fooling yourself?
You're the only one who can tell
You're the only person who'll lose in the end
There will be nothing there, only you, no one else

CHORUS

Runaway
Runaway, come on back
Come inside
Come on back, Runaway
Now it's time
You must make up your mind
Must decide Runaway, Runaway
Stay behind
Runaway

Try to make your heart compromise
Look at possibilities twice
Let your reasoning do the choosing for you
You will see that the pain's really love in disguise

CHORUS

Runaway
Runaway, come on back
Come inside
Come on back, Runaway
Now it's time
You must make up your mind
Must decide Runaway, Runaway
Stay behind
Runaway

Make that journey to your heart
Just don't go too far

Knowing when's enough
Will see you safely home
Here inside the warmth with me
You'll never want to leave
Again

INSTRUMENTAL BREAK

If you run away from your feelings you'll find
There is no turning back from what you left behind

CHORUS

Runaway
Runaway, come on back
Come inside
Come on back, Runaway
Now it's time
You must make up your mind
Must decide Runaway, Runaway
Stay behind
Runaway

Looking for a reason to lie?
Are there many places to hide?
Looking for a reason to run?
