

TITLE : The Heart Of Life

COMPOSER : Ian Low

LYRICIST : Ian Low

And as I'm walking through the trees
I take a look up in the sky
I turn around and give a little smile

And as I'm running through the mountains
I'm so glad that you're always there
I watch you go on for a thousand miles

Earth is a place you can live
The heart, the heart of life
Earth is for you to breathe
The heart, the heart of life
