

Title : SANCTUARY PARK

Composer : Dixie L.R.Ferdinands

Lyricist : Dixie L.R.Ferdinands

Thru' all the years we had, together you and I,
We'd chase the rainbows till the end of time,
When I kissed you in the dark, in Sanctuary Park,
In your eyes, you said you love me,

There was a time, when we were so in love,
The dreams we shared with one another,
He came into your life, you threw it all away,
And there is nothin' more that I can say to you,
Still it hurts, the pain is just a memory of love, us livin' together,

Still life goes on and on, nothin' seems to change,
the dream we used to dream about is gone,
When I kissed you in the dark, in Sanctuary Park,
On a lovely moonlight night we fell in love,

Nothin' seemed to matter anymore,
You and I, laughin' in the sun,
Just kickin' sand and dancin' in the rain,

When I think of all the years we had, together you and I,
We'd stay up late to greet the mornin' sun,
When I kissed you in the dark, in Sanctuary Park,
In Sanctuary Park we fell in love,

Oh! nothin' seemed to matter anymore,
You and I, laughin' in the sun,
Just kickin' sand and dancin' in the rain,

Still life goes on and on, nothin' seems to change,
The dream we use to dream about is gone,
When I kissed you in the dark, in Sanctuary Park,
In your eyes, you said you love me,
You loved me, you loved me.