

Title : Watery

Composer : Leon Lim / Adrian Loo

Lyricist : Leon Lim

There is an old songline etched on the earth
Walking with it brings a new birth
There is an old magic with trees and streams
As the milestones of my long lost dreams

Listen to the voice of the wind as she blows
Watch the waves of rain as the forest grows
Let us walk with trees on our side
Let this mighty heartbeat be our guide

We all have dreamings and totems
Listen as they softly speak of promises
Of a catholic release, of our dreamtime
And of the wisdom we never could find

Listen to the voice of the wind as she blows
Watch the waves of rain as the forest grows
Let us walk with trees on our side
Let this mighty heartbeat be our guide
