

Title : Betrayed

Composer : Mark Chan

Lyricist : Mark Chan

Don't want to be the first to say goodbye
But I can't revive the flame that has died.
I know it's not easy when loving has flown We're falling apart and I can't face it on my own

I see it in your eyes
Laughter can't disguise
the feelings that have died
And I can't cry-

Is it the way of love to be betrayed by love?
Why can't we stay in love?
Forever's not real enough
It's just the way
The way of love is fading away, fading away, fading away

Don't want to be the first to walk out the door
But we can't go on pretending anymore
Too many years we've spent Talking in rhyme
Forever has come and gone
We're running out of time

I see it in your eyes
Laughter can't disguise
the feelings that have died
and I can't cry....
