Verse 1

She knew that he would leave, to see the world.
But she stayed cos' she was a hometown girl.
She hoped that someday he would come back home.
And she'd happy and not alone.

Chorus

Every night she'd count the stars above.
And she would pray that he could feel her love.

Verse 2

He made a new life and he fell in love.
With someone who was all he'd dreamed about.
And so she kept on waiting her whole life long.
While she wondered, what went wrong?

Chorus

Every night she'd count the stars above.
And she would pray that he could feel her love.
But she was out of time.
She was out time.
She was out of time.
