

Title : Truth Will Conquer All

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

CHORUS

This is the development
Of our little plot
Where the vital elements
Turn up boiling hot

Every personality
Rises to the fore...

Leaving us demanding more
And more's the pity when the bad
Rear their ugly heads
All they seem is very mad
When they're sad instead
In the face of happiness
How they plan and scheme
Intruding in and ruining other's dreams
But truth will conquer all
In the end the losers fall..

Shame shame shame shame

Money can buy anything
To satisfy a greed
For possessions that they do not need
But truth will conquer all
In the end the losers fall...

Love
Is this love
What is love
I'm in love

GUYS

There's a love
Waiting for them out there
That two people can share
It's so very near yet it's hidden somewhere

GIRLS

This is where they fall in love
Something they've been dreaming of
Somehow from the skies above
True love finds its way...

CHORUS

See the wicked do their work
Weaving evil spells
Causing damage causing hurt
Causing pain as well
The eventuality
Should and must not be
In favour of the doers
Of evil deeds
But truth will conquer all
In the end the losers fall
Only truth will conquer all
In the end the losers fall...

If this is love
What is love...
