

Title : Walk Out In The Rain

Composer : Mel Ferdinands

Lyricist : Mel Ferdinands

So I'll just walk out in the rain
So that the clouds can hide the pain
And baby you will never see
The thousand tears you gave to me

And if the rain should go away
Then in my lonely room I'll stay
So that the world will never know,
How much it hurt to see you go away

So I'll just live a life of hope
Pretending that I couldn't care
But if you find you cannot cope
Just call my name and I'll be there

If I could live my life again
I'll still relive those precious times
Although I know there would be pain
I'll feel so good while you were mine

So I'll just walk out in the rain
So that the clouds can hide the pain
And baby you will never see
The million tears you gave to me

And if the rain should go away
Then in my lonely room I'll stay
So that the world will never know
How much it hurts to see you go

And if you ever change your mind,
You know, that baby, you will find
No more sorrow, no more pain
You'll find me walking in the rain
