

Title : Seeing

Composer : Tan Mary

Lyricist : Koh Juan Toong

Have you ever seen Mount Faber's sunset?
It is something you don't easily forget or have you ever come in by seas, any day And seen the sky-line we call'd Shen-ton way?

Have you ever taken a walk in a park?
Beauty in sun-light, beauty in the dark?
Watched as a city in the mornings come alive with a lively yawning?
Know you are seeing Singapore, a picture of her own.
When you are a Singapore, then you know you are at home

Have you ever been down to the seas?
And seen all the people at play?
And seeing this island grow slowly Land to land. Lagoons and bays?

Have you walked the streets at night, And seen markets that come alive with lights seen gardens that green the isle thru' if not, this is all I say to you know you are seeing Singapore, A picture of her own.
When you are a Singaporean, then you know you are at home
