

Title : Shadow Weaver

Composer : Stomping Ground

Lyricist : Zahid

The fate that awaits you was not decreed from the heavens above
But rather from the will of a vengeful one
Can I pay my way out

Can I pay my way
Free myself from your curse
Can I offer you my beloved wife
To satiate your jealousy

I will pay my way

Vengeful one come and face me
Like the man you claimed to be
Or would you rather hide behind those gremlins

Vengeful one come and face me
Or would you rather have them fight
Your own daily battles

Demons demons fly thru the sky I've come to set you free
Back to the master who subjugates
Back to the master who will suffer his own fate

Vengeful one come and face me
Like the man you claimed to be
Vengeful one come and face me
Or would you rather have them fight
Your own daily battles

The fate that awaits you can never be decreed by a prisoner of
The shadows

You can run all you can
