

Title : Shine

Composer : Dick Lee

Lyricist : Dick Lee

Whenever you're troubled
When bad times have burst every bubble
Don't get swallowed up by the current
Or drown in a torrent of pain.
Get lost in the city
Start walking away from self-pity
Just clear all the clouds from your mind
Look inside for the light and you'll find -

CHORUS

You're gonna
Shine - you'll make it
Shine - awaken
Shine - and shake it away
Surely you'll
Shine - can do it
Shine - can prove it
Shine - and shoo it away
You're gonna
Shine.

So you have got troubles?
If you hadn't you'd be abnormal
It's all part and parcel of growing
And living with knowing you're wrong.
When you must recover
From failure, or loss, or a lover
Remember, you've only one life
So decide to be fine and in time -

CHORUS

You're gonna
Shine - you'll make it
Shine - awaken
Shine - and shake it away
Surely you'll
Shine - can do it
Shine - can prove it
Shine - and shoo it away

You're gonna
Shine.

Life has its ups and its downs
Still you worry and frown everyday.
So all your blessings you count
And you say:
"I'm gonna Shine them away!"

INSTRUMENTAL BREAK

CHORUS

You're gonna
Shine - you'll make it
Shine - awaken
Shine - and shake it away
Surely you'll
Shine - can do it
Shine - can prove it
Shine - and shoo it away
You're gonna
Shine.
