

Title : Another World

There's a world
Very different out there
Where the chances are fair
And for everyone there's a lover somewhere
In this world
I could be someone who
Would start again over anew
And be the best at whatever I do

But then here I am now
And the word's got around
I am stuck in my ways
But I don't have both my feet on the ground

Go! Get out of here
I'm sinking year after year
Just the chance to escape
Every bad wrong move that I make
I must get out of here
Leave my worries and fears
And I know if I try
I won't be here

There's a life
Someone said I should try
Where days are fine and the nights
Are full of THE stars and not colourful lights
Is there a life
Better than what I see
IS somebody waiting for me
And could I be everything I should be

But then here I am now
And the word's gone around
I am stuck in my ways
But I don't have both my feet on the ground

Go! Get out of here

I'm sinking year after year
Just the chance to escape
Every bad wrong move that I make
I must get out of here
Leave my worries and fears
And I know if I try
I won't be here

Leave my worries and fears
And I know if I try
I won't be here
